ARMY MAN SENT HERE PROBABLY SAVED HIS LIFE

Transfer of Lieut. Riggs Lucky, According to Story Told By Relative

LONG BEACH, Cal.—What a narrow escape his brother-in-law had from being one of the victims of the recent tragedy at Carrizal, Mexico, was told by W. E. Selin, high school professor of New Haven, Conn., who has arrived, accompanied by his nephew, Russell Selin of Chicago, for a visit of two months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Abrams. Mr.
Selin is Mrs. Abrams' brother.

Kerr T. Riggs, whose sister Mr. Se-lin married about a year ago, has been an officer in the United States army for a number of years, and for some time had been a lieutenant in the 10th Cavalry, attached to the very company which was the victim of Mexican treachery at Carrizal.

Just at the time the 10th Cavalry was ordered to proceed to the border, Lieut. Riggs was promoted to a captaincy and transferred to the 4th Cavalry, which is stationed at Honolulu.

Capt. Boyd, of the company which was attacked at Carrizal, and one of those whose lives were snuffed out by the Mexican's raking fire, was one of Capt. Riggs' dearest friends. They had been chums for years.

A letter just received from Capt.
Riggs states that he has made application to be transferred again and placed at the head of a volunteer company in Mexico.

While he realizes that had he not been sent to Honolulu he probably would have been slain in the Carrizal horror, he is filled with bitterness over the slaughter of Capt. Boyd and members of his company, and he writes that he would like nothing better than to get into actual service in Mexico and help avenge the killing of the American troopers.

Capt. Riggs' sister, Mrs. Selin, is visiting her parents in Cynthiana, Ky., and will return to New Haven with her husband about September 1.

PERSONNEL OF MOTOR
AMBULANCE COMPANY IS NAMED IN ORDER

Details of organization of a motor ambulance company at Schofield Barracks have been given out in an order from Hawaiian department headquarters. First news that the company would be organized and had been authorized by the war department was published by the Star-Bulletin a few days ago.

The order issued from headquarters gives the enlisted personnel of the company, to be taken from the Medical department, as follows:

Sgt. First Class Albert O. Miller, Sgt. John A. Cochran, Pvt. First Class Edward F. Burke, Joseph H.
Duvall and Coleman C. McMillan, Pvt. Kenneth B. Alers, Fred Anderson, Hand Austin, Stanley Benson, partment Hospital; Pvt. First Class Frank A. Presley, Fort Shafter.

The company will be commanded by 1st Lieut. Stephen H. Smith, Medical Department.

COMMANDER OF ST. LOUIS
FROM HAWAII; OFFICER
MARRIED HONOLULU GIRL

Lieut.-Cmdr. Victor S. Houston of the cruiser St. Louis, now in port, is one of the few men of Hawaii in the navy. He is a nephew of Mrs. W. M.
Gifford, his mother being a member of the Brickwood family. His grandfather was at one time postmaster-general of Hawaii.

Houston was married to Miss Pinau Brickwood a few years ago. He comes of a naval family, as his father was a naval officer. While at Annapolis Houston was considered the best swordsmen in the navy. He was at one time in charge of the receiving ship in San Francisco harbor, and at that time Mrs. Houston was given the rare privilege of living on board the ship.

The old boundary dispute between Michigan and Ohio, which was keenest before Michigan became a state, was never settled until the last summer, when a new line of handsome granite markers was set up.

ONOMEA SUGAR
CO. HAS LARGE
JULY BALANCE

Mainland Paper Gives Figures That Show Company is Highly Prosperous

That with a third of its estimated 1916 crop unmarketed Onomea Sugar Company had on July 10 a cash balance of $716,096.02, is a statement made in the San Francisco Chronicle of July 21, which says relative to the company:

The monthly memorandum of the financial standing of the Onomea Sugar Company shows an estimated cash balance up to July 10 of $716,- 096.02, after only 12,552 tons have been shipped up to that date, and disbursements of only $3 a share in dividends. In the above figures $95 a ton has been taken as a basis, while actually $110 net will probably be realized on the sugars abroad.

The estimated crop of the Onomea Sugar Company for this year is 17,500 tons. In other words, 5,000 tons remain to be shipped. Taking the latter figure of $110 to be realized on this crop, and figuring all dividends paid and to be paid up to the 31st of December, 1916, Onomea Sugar will in all probability, close the year with a cash balance of over $600,000, besides having put aside a reserve fund of $400,000.

It seems probable, therefore, in view of these figures, that further extra dividends will be forthcoming.
